Ex Parte Quayle

1. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

In the claim:

- a. The preliminary amendment submitted on July 21, 2004 is not valid because the preliminary amendment does not have the signature of the attorney in charge of the preliminary amendment. Based on the allowable subject matter in claims 1 and 9 originally filed, the Ex Parte Quayle action is established. However, the applicant should submit an amendment that amends claims 1-16 as written in the preliminary amendment to conform with the common format normally used in the United States.
- b. Further, with respect to claims 5 and 13, line 12 (or line 13 in claim 13), the parameter X_o, y_o) should be corrected to (x_o, y_o) .

In the specification:

- a. Since the preliminary amendment is not valid as explained above, the next amendment should include the amendment to the specification as written on page 2 of the preliminary amendment.
- b. The "Fig.1" at the end of the abstract should be deleted.

Allowable Subject Matter

2. Claims 1-16 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the claim objection set forth in this Office action.

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Prior arts of record do not disclose a control system for a powered vehicle for describing a desired movement of the vehicle taught in claim 1. The system includes a control system which has a computing means for calculating a desired movement of the vehicle in which translation of the vehicle is calculated in the form of a continuous cubic function and rotation of the vehicle is calculated in the form of a linear function. Claims 9 and 16 are a method and computer program product of controlling the movement of the powered vehicle for the corresponding system disclosed in claim 1.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.
